

Empowering Children Changing lives!

Role title: Siyabonga Community Ambassador

Role summary:

As Siyabonga Community Ambassador you will play a key role in helping the charity to meet its strategic objectives of increasing awareness and understanding of its work with the general public. Our ambassadors will help 'tell the Siyabonga story' in their local community by delivering talks to local groups churches, companies and organisations. The discussion delivered by our Ambassadors will ensure more people know about our vision, mission and objectives their area – and how to support the organisation; and as way increase sponsorship, volunteering and sponsorship, support for the charity locally.

How much time will it take?

This role in most cases will take about 1 to 2 hours per week, mainly evenings.

What you will do:

- Become familiar with the work of Siyabonga Milele Africa the vision, mission and objectives in particular
- In conjunction with the Sponsorship Director, research and reach out to local groups, churches, companies and organisations which welcome outside speakers at meetings, events, AGMs etc
- Contact relevant groups and organisations and ask to speak at one of their meetings
- Deliver a talk which engages and motivates the audience to take action towards the vision

Our Mission is to: Raise funds and awareness to educate, nurture and support Ugandan vulnerable children to their full potential

- Ensure all donations and expressions of interest in fundraising and volunteering are passed back to the Sponsorship/ PR Director promptly for follow-up.
- Prepare a welcome pack for new volunteers introducing them to your organisation
- In conjunction with the Sponsorship Director train volunteers, and give them support, guidance and encouragement;

What you'll get out of it:

This is a very social role. You'll provide an important service to the organisation and community, and for a small investment of time you'll get to meet lots of people from many backgrounds. Doing something unique and valuable like this is something we and children will appreciate. As an ambassador your willingness to take action can transform the underprivileged life into thanksgiving, joy and change a deprived child's life into blessing

Skills Required:

- Approachable and a good listener
- Well organised
- Able to delegate
- Confident and effective communicator
- Enthusiastic and a good motivator
- Tactful and discrete
- Prepared to make a regular time commitment

Induction

As our Ambassadors will be given a training pack which contains all our information, get to talk to the Directors and know who they are and their passion for the organisation. You will be asked to provide more information or fill in a form if necessary. A picture of you and your contact information and will be put on the Siyabonga website. You will be supported by Directors particularly the sponsorship Director

Thank you for your thoughtfulness and time, thank for choosing to be part of us and empowering children, changing lives
